ABOUT NASHIK

Nashik is an ancient city in the northwest region of Maharashtra in India. Situated on the banks of Godavari river Nashik is best known for being one of Hindu pilgrimage sites, that of Kumbh Mela which is held every 12 years. The city located about 190 km north of state capital Mumbai, is called the "Wine Capital of India" as half of India's vineyards and wineries are located in Nashik. Nashik was formerly known as Gulshanabad and it is important historically, mythologically, socially and culturally. Known for the temples on the banks of the Godavari it has historically been one of the holy sites of the Hindu and Muslim religion.

HOW TO REACH DHAMANGAON

SMBT Campus Dhamangaon is located on Ghoti-Sinnar-Highway (By-pass from Mumbai-Agra Highway). It is also connected to Nashik by road 38 km. Nearest railway station is Deolali camp around 20km. Nearest International Airport is 'Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj International Airport', Mumbai/ Bombay around 149 km.

About Nashik

Nashik is an ancient city in the northwest region of Maharashtra in India. Situated on the banks of Godavari river, Nashik is well known for being one of the Hindu pilgrimage centers. It is also the site for Kumbh Mela which is held every 12 years. The city is located about 190 km north of state capital Mumbai, and is known as the "Wine Capital of India". More than half of India's vineyards and wineries are located in Nashik. Nashik was formerly known as Gulshanabad and it is important historically, mythologically, socially and culturally. Known for the temples on the banks of the Godavari it has historically been one of the holy sites of the Hindu and Muslim religion.
